New Skirt For 1866.

The Great Invention of the Age in HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc, etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST BRADLEY & CARY, PROPRIETORS of the Invention, and SOLE MANUFACTURERS, 97 CHAMBERS, 79 & 81 READE STREETS New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of, operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric, with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coach maker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines at prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.

MAJOR GEE.

We very much regret that this gentleman, by the fortunes of war, has been subjected to arrest and imprisonment. To those who are acquainted with the administration of the officer alluded to, no representation regarding him is necessary, but a brief statement of facts may not be out of the way to explain the causes of the charges now preferred against him.

Ordered to this Post against his wishes, Major Gee assumed Command of the Prison of Salisbury, then containing some six thousand prisoners of war. Without absolute control over either Quartermaster, Commissary or Medical department, he was powerless to prevent the suffering which he at all times deeply deplored. The danger of an emeute was manifest and imminent; the guards were insufficient, frequently requiring the same detail to be kept on duty for 48 hours at a time, and the prisoners desperate from confinement, insufficient clothing, short rations and home sickness, were ripe for any measure leading to escape. His duty, demanded of Major Gee the stern soldierly ability, and while we regret that so much suffering should have been entailed upon prisoners of war, then our foes, a strict examination must acquit Major Gee entirely.

Many of our readers will remember the panic occasioned in this community by the attempted outbreak in October, 1864, and will also remember that to the prompt action of this officer, the existence of the town of Salisbury is now due It is an established military maxim, that the prisoner who attempts escape risks his life, and the unfortunate men who were killed at this date, can form no exception to the rule.

We believe that Major Gee will be tried without prejudice. And fairly and impartially dealt with. His friends ask no more.

THE WIDDOW OF STONEWALL JACKSON.

The people of Richmond, Charlottsville, Louisville, Memphis, New Berne and many other important places, are in various ways contributing to the aid of this noble woman.

We hope Salisbury will neither prove herself faithless to the memory of the immortal dead who lies sleeping beneath the shaddows of the blackened chimnies of Lexington, nor to those acts of charitable purpose that follow after. But we hope there will be no boot-licking, no tom-foolery, and no insult offered to the gentleman who commands this District by asking of him, if you can do a hundred act; as was done in New Berne, when Mr. George McKnight addressed a very polite note to Colonel Wheeler commanding the District, asking the privilege of an entertainment of some kind for the "benefit of the widdow of the late General Stonewall Jackson." Now there is Mr. McKnights just tribute for his toadyism, signed by H. R. Ellis A. A. A. Gen. "The United States Military authorities can never object to a charitable action. All soldiers owe a tribute to gallantry and honor."

Shall we then attend to our own business if and ask the aid of these gentlemen if necessary: we know they will give it to us. Shall we have a fair, a Hop, Ball, Concert or Tableaux! Will our young ladies take this matter in hand.

SALISBURY BANNER.—Dr. Stiles Kennedy has become associate editor of this paper. In his brief salutatory, he says, "I bring very little into it, and I expect to take very little out of it." If you take very little from very little, what remains? —Raleigh Sentinel.

Exactly the remainder: usually found in the Sentinel; very little.

We do not know what will be the final aim of the French Emperor, in his self-imposed mission of Mexican regeneration; but we say, without hesitation, that if subtle, profound, and powerful policy are of any account, that sagacious and far seeing Monarch, will attain his end: and we add with all the earnestness of conviction, that in the present distracted condition of our country, Napoleon the third, in the person of his representative Maximilian, is no desirable neighbor. Like all great men, and there have been few greater, he understands the value of patience, and reserve, and his marvelous reticence, hides his ultimate aims even from his advisers. We see his acts, and may criticise them, but the policy of which they are integral parts, he keeps to himself. His past history shows that he will never unnecessarily entangle himself in difficulties, of which the issue is at least doubtful, by a stubborn adherence to a particular policy, when a different course could be adopted.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, Jany. 3d, 1866.

SIR: Yours, of the 21st ult., relative to the assessment against Powell and Clarke, of your district on cotton afterwards destroyed by fire, was duly received.

In reply, I have to say, that if the cotton in question had been sold or removed for sale, consumption or use, assessment thereof was in accordance with law, and the tax assessed thereon must be paid by the parties, notwithstanding the destruction of the cotton subsequently by fire as alleged.

The tax accrued upon the cotton at the time of its removal for either of the above named purposes, and the relation of the parties to government is the same as if the destruction had occurred at any time subsequently to the payment of the tax, in which case no claim for refunding could be allowed.

But if this cotton at the time of the assessment was still in the hands of the original producers having never been sold or removed for sale, consumption or use, the assessment and return is held to have been erroneous, as not being in accordance with the provisions of the first paragraph of sec. 94, of the Excise law, and will be abated upon the parties presenting their claim to this office in the usual form provided the evidence of the above facts are found satisfactory.

Assessors cannot be authorized to obliterate any assessments made by their assistants in the discharge of the duty of the assessment and, consequently you should endeavor to impress upon their minds the necessity of care in making their returns of assessments to comply with the conditions of the law.

Very respectfully,
D. C. WHITMAN.
Deputy Commissioner.

H. H. HELPER Esq.,
Assessor 3 d District.

ALL RIGHT AGAIN.—The bridge over the Neuse, near Smithfield, is completed, and the trains on the N. C. Railroad are now running through without hindrance.

The Carolina Watchman has been revived under the control of its former Editor, J. J. Bruner, Esq. Mr. Bruner has had long experience as a public journalist, and will, doubtless, make the Watchman full worthy as ever of the public confidence.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION IN CHARLOTTE.—The Charter elections took place in Charlotte on Tuesday last, and resulted in the choice of S. A. Harris, Esq., as Mayor, by a large majority. The following gentlemen were chosen Commissioners, viz: Jno. Wilkes. Allen Cruse, J. L. Brown, R. M. Oats, A. A. N. M. Taylor, M. D. L. Moody, H. L. Alexander and Wm. Harty.

The threat of the Standard to appeal to the President for the re-committment of Governor Vance to the Old Capitol prison, and his summary trial for treason, simply because some enthusiastic friends will praise him and won't praise Gov. Holden, is not only ridiculous within itself, but is a direct insult to Mr. Johnson. Does that paper have the effrontery to presume that the President will be influenced by such poltry considerations? He has graver issues to attended to than the private griefs of the Raleigh Standard.—Sentinel.

A Morman on the Moral Matrimonial Situation.—A Mormon, who has arrived in Chicago for the purpose of marrying his fifth wife, writes the following curious note to the Tribune of that city: "Editor Chicago Tribune:

"On my visit to Chicago I noticed an article in the Tribune in regard to Utah. That Speaker Colfax expressed a wish that President Young might have a 'resolution prohibiting polygamy' is to me a matter of some doubt. On the contrary, I have reason to know that Speaker Colfax eloquently expressed his gratitude at the domestic hapiness of our community. I am a Mormon born and bred, and the husband of four wives, and what may seem strange, my mission here is one of love, to transplant a flower from the sterile (morally) latitude to bloom and flourish in our happy home. We have no wish to be admitted into your 'Union'—nor do we wish at one full swoop to be divorced from our wives and families. It seems to me it would be wise to let us Mormons alone, and devote your moral lectures to a community where a man or woman can marry and be divorced three times in as many years.

"Respectfully,
ABRAHAM WELLS."

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.

Senate.—Mr. Howard offered a joint resolution, declaring that whereas it appears that Messrs. Davis and Clay are held in confinement as having been concerned in the assassination of President Lincoln, and the murder of federal soldiers, held as prisoners of war, therefore it is respectfully recommended that they be immediately tried by a military commission.

Objection being made, the resolution lies over.

House.—The credentials of the representatives from Arkansas were presented and referred to the Committee on Elections.

A proposition was made, and received 12 votes, authorizing the negroes in the District of Columbia to decide by ballot whether white men should vote!

Mr. Stevens offered a resolution, instructing the Judiciary Committee to consider the expediency of so amending the act of 1865, relating to the test oath, as to allow lawyers to practice their professions, without taking said oath, on equal terms with other professions.

House then resumed the discussion of the negro suffrage bill.

From the Pacific Coast—Arrival of Treasure.

New York, Jan. 12.—Panama dates to January 1st state that the mail steamship from Peru had arrived there on the 28th. War matters in Chili are unchanged. After the capture of the Spanish blockading ship Wodenga, by the Chilian man-of-war, she put to sea, and it was believed she sailed from the Southern part of Peru for the purpose of meeting with the Peruvian fleet. The news from Peru is very favorable. Peace reigns throughout the Republic, under the new regime. Several vessels, on suspicion they were carrying implements of war to the Spaniards, had been detained in Callao. It is believed that the new Government will reject the treaty with Spain, made by the previous Government. A number of the leaders who were opposed to the new Government have been arrested and banished.

Military Arrests at Charleston.

Charleston, January 10.—Several arrests by the military forces of the United States stationed here were made yesterday. They grew out of an attempt on the part of the Government to obtain the amount of the assets of the "Bee Company," which will be remembered as a well-known blockade-running concern during the war. One of the parties connected with this company, the agent at Nassau, refused positively to divulge anything with reference to the assets, and he was ordered to be imprisoned. The case excites much interest.

A Rough Suitor for a Favor.

Washington, Jan. 12.—On Wednesday evening between eight and nine o'clock, a man, of unusually large proportions, called at the residence of Hon. Benjamin F. Wade, United States Senator from Ohio, on 4½ street, and asked to see the Senator. He was shown up stairs by the servant to Mr. W's room, and, after being seated, he stated he was trying to obtain employment in the United States navy, and asked Mr. Wade to sign a paper of recommendation for him, in order to further his object. Mr. Wade refused to do so. He did not know him, and advised him to procure the signature of some person to whom he was known. The stranger looked at the Senator with a significant scowl, which the latter plainly interpreted as meaning mischief. At this juncture of the interview Mr. Wade arose, and stepping into an adjoining room, armed himself with a loaded pistol and quietly returned.

After looking at each other for some time in silence, the man began the conversation by saying: "Ain't you going to sign my paper?" to which Mr. Wade returned an emphatic negative, adding that he had no knowledge of him. The stranger arose, drew out a bowie knife about twelve inches long, remarking, "I suppose you know we are now alone, sir, in this room," was proceeding to unsheath the weapon, when Senator Wade sprang to his feet, and drawing the pistol, placed it within a short distance of the fellow's head, telling him to clear out immediately, or he would shoot him.—Taken somewhat by surprise, the man began to find his way to the door, followed up close by Senator Wade with the pistol.

The Senator saw his visitor down stairs, and before reaching the door, quietly informed him that he had a great notion to shoot him anyhow. Upon this the stranger departed. During the visit he failed to produce any papers for signature, and evidently made this a mere pretext for the interview. At the time of the visit there were but three persons in the house, beside Senator Wade.

GENERAL ORDER.

Headquarters Department of N. C.
Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 12th, 1866.

General Orders, No. 4.

It appearing that Agents employed in the collection of public animals have, in some instances, acted without authority, the following rules will be observed by all concerned:

I. All citizens employed for the collection of such animals will be at once discharged. Such duty can be performed by enlisted men detailed for the purpose.

II. No animal not branded "U. S." or "C. S." will be taken from the possessor, except upon orders in each particular case, from these Headquarters. Officers charged with the duty of collecting animals, and having reason to believe that animals not branded are the property of the Government, will forward report with statements of facts and evidence in each case.

III. The 3d Article of the supplemental terms of the surrender of the Rebel forces under General Joseph E. Johnston is as follows: "Private horses and other private property of both officers and men to be retained by them." Consequently, private horses of those included in the terms of surrender, although, used in service against the government during the war, will not be collected, as the said article expressly excepts them. It has been represented that many private horses in the Rebel service were branded. The fact that a horse or mule is branded "C. S." is prima facie evidence, that it belongs to the government, but evidence to the contrary will be received, and if it aapears, that such branded animal was actually private property at the time of the surrender of the Rebel forces, it will be restored to the claimant. District commanders will decide the question of right of property to such animal as are branded and claimed under the terms of the surrender.

IV. Animals will be sold in the counties where collected, unless it would be a loss to the government. The collection of animals not branded "U. S." will be completed by the first day of February, proximo, after which date no animals not branded "U. S." will be collected, except on orders from these headquarters.

V. The foregoining does not apply to the collection of animals heretofore loaned by order of the military authorities, which animals, whether branded or not, will be collected and sold as heretofore ordered.

VI. It is to be borne in mind by all, that in the collection of animals, only such as are the property of the Government are to be taken.

The rules to be observed are, that no animal not branded "U. S." or "C. S." is to be taken except on orders from Department Headquarters, in each particular case; that the brand "U. S." or "C. S." is prima facie evidence of property in the Government; that possession of proper certificates of sale of animals branded "U. S." is the proper and conclusive evidence of ownership of the possessor, and that of animals branded "C. S." proof that such animals were private property, at the time of the surrender of the Rebel armies, will entitle the possessor to retain them.

THE FENIAN SPLIT.

The Fenian Congress at New York has been adjourned sine die. The course of Colonel O'Mahoney was sustained by the members present, but it was finally concluded to abolish the organized Government, with its executive and legislative branches, and to return to the simple form of an association, under which the Brotherhood seems to have flourished before the more ambitious change in its structure was authorized by the Convention at Philadelphia. Colonel O'Mahoney, therefore, now holds the more absolute authority of Head Centre, to whom the subordinate Centres are to report. The malcontent Senators, however, are not disposed to assent to this return to the old order of things, and propose to call together a new Congress, to be composed of their particular friends and adherents.—Rich. Examiner.

ARREST OF COL. MOSBY.

We learn that Col. John S. Mosby was arrested, at his home in Fauquier, a few days since, by military authority, and taken to Washington and imprisoned. He is charged, we understand, with having hang d two Federal soldiers in the Valley, during the war, in retaliation for the murder of some of his men.

When we remember that Colonel Mosby, though of that class known as Partizan Rangers, was a regularly commissioned officer in the service of the Confederate States, and, as such, received the parole awarded the other officers of General Lee's army, his arrest seems most extraordinary, and flatly in violation of the terms of parole.

For some months Colonel Mosby has been quietly practicing law in Warrenton, demeaning himself as a good and loyal citizen of his section.

Measurement of Corn in the Crib.—After leveling the corn, multiply the length and breadth of the house together, and the product by the depth, which will give the cubic feet of the bulk of corn; then divide this last product by twelve, and the quotient will be the number of barrels of shelled corn in the above division. It will be so many twelfths of a barrel of shelled corn over. Example—12 feet long.

FOR THE LADIES.

If our ladies have a fancy for Parisian dictations, they may copy the following fashion:—The latest agony is a white dress stuck all over with real, though of course stuffed love birds, the interstices being filled up with beetles—not the little beetles 'that we tread upon,' nothing of that sort, but regular fine gold and green insects, such as we see in the growing darkness of a Neapolitan summer night. The birds rather remind one of Italy, too. They are like those warblers which we see there served up on polenta. Last year the female mind was insane about boots; heels like pegs placed in the middle of the foot, and so high that even the dirt of Paris asphalte did not soil the wearer. This year the madness has reached the brain and lunatic bonnets are the natural result. Bonnets! How can that be a bonnet which has no crown, no front, on back? It must be 'nothing,' like Sheridan's 'footless stocking without a leg.'"

ARTEMUS WARD AND THE MORMONS.

Artemus Ward's new talk on the Mormons is rather funny. Here are some of the hits:

Brigham Young has eighty wives, besides those which are only "sealed" and not with him.

He loved not wisely
But two (hundred) well.

The Vice-President has two hundred head of cattle, and two hundred head of wives. They have an awful appetite. I once thoughtlessly gave a family ticket to an elder to attend my lecture. He came and filled the whole house. 'Twas a success that night, but I didn't get any money. The seventeenth wife of a deceased elder tried to make me a Mormon and mary them. They wept; they hove a sigh—)seventeen sighs--a sigh of considerable size.) They put their white soft hands in mine, (seventeen hands) surrounding me. There was I alone, away from my parents. I exclaimed; "I hope you have no dishonorable intentions!" As I took myself away, they said in their grief: "It is too much!"—That was just the thing that troubled me in their request, and so I said: "It is too much!"

"I CANNOT MIND MY WHEEL."

I cannot mind my wheel, mother,
I cannot mind my wheel.
You know not what this heart must know.
You know not what I feel.
My thread is idly cast, mother;
My thoughts are far away.
My hopes are fading fast, mother;
Yet, feel you not for me.

CHORUS.

Oh! I cannot mind my wheel, mother,
I cannot mind my wheel;
You know not what this heart must know.
You know not what I feel.

I had a dreadful dream, mother,
T'was of a battle field.
I thought I saw his noble form
Lie wounded on the green.
I saw him lying there, mother,
As plain as now I see,
And heard him call on me, mother.
Yet, feel you not for me.

CHORUS.

Gazette copy.

LOCAL.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

We are requested to state that the remains of the late W. R. Wilson, Esq., will be buried to-day with Masonic honors, at 10 o'clock. The lodge is called to meet at 8½ o'clock, a. m Visiting brethren are respectfully invited to attend.

THE GAZETTE.

This very obscure concern, which we had determined never again to notice, except to resent insult, compels us, in this instance, to deviate from the general rule we had adopted to govern our future action with respect to it.

The Gazette has a remarkable fecundity for misrepresentation, and it took occasion on yesterday morning to display this peurile faculty in a labored effort to be facetious, smart, and agreeable. How far it succeeded, we will leave its one dozen readers to determine. Its article, thrown at us, is simply verbosity—devoid, alike of point and wit. It would produce an impression that is wholly erroneous in itself. Dr. Kennedy, the junior editor, being associating with us, does not impair our right to the columns of this paper, and we would respectfully inform our numerous readers, who have ever sustained and applauded our efforts in the management of the Banner, that, as its senior editor, our position is the same as heretofore.

We do not believe that the Dr. cares to reciprocate the high regard and cordial good feeling the Gazette affects to entertain for him, judging from a Local after his "smile," which appeared in the Banner yesterday. As for ourselves, we would have been glad to treat the Gazette with uniform courtesy and kindness: we had intended to do it, despite the fact that the Gazette made a thrust at us in its prospectus. Notwithstanding this we treated the concern kindly. But it could not appreciate kindness, or not being disposed to return it, had not been long under way before it began to throw stones, forgetting it moved and had its being in a glass house.

We agree with the Gazette that contentious editorial harangues are very unpalatable to the general reader, but at the same time we would inform it that we can substantiate every thing we have said, and that we are responsible for it.

We are to-day, on a firmer footing and with a larger list of subscribers, than we were when the Gazette first basked its dirty sides in the light of day. Our paper is taken by nearly all the subscribers to the Gazette, besides our large county list, and numerous good patrons in West. North Carolina. The Gazette has made a desperate effort to live. It has, we have the best reason to believe, paid for numerous puffs in Northern papers, to give it notoriety.

MORE LIGHT.

Mr. Enoch Perry, of the firm of Perry & Cole, Gass and Steam Fitters, No. 47, Bollington street, Petersburg, Va., walked into our sanctum last night, without much ceremony, and put on a new style of gass burners. This proceding pleased the editor, printers and devil, especially as these burners save us one third gass, gives the Printers one third more light, and the other third we now give the public.

Mr. Perry is at the Mansion House.

Mr. W. R. Wilson, deceased, will be buried to-day, with Masonic honors, we understand. Our citizens generally are invited to attend. To his friends no invitation is necessary, it is the last honor we can pay, to the last remains of an old and esteemed citizen. The occasion is a solemn one indeed.

STEPHEN LORD.

The traveling community will be glad to learn that this solid, and agreeable young man has been appointed ticket agent of the N. C. R. R. at this point. If the Rail Road officials do any justice to merit and efficiency, we will soon hear of his advancement.

THE HORSE QUESTION.

By favor of the National Express we have the Raleigh Sentinel, the only paper from the East, in town, that we know of. We take from it the latest news in that direction, and a general order from General Huger on that very important subject the horse question.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Dr. Hicks offers his professional services.

Funeral Notice.

A NEAT REPLY,

"I dislike your saying that my teeth are going. So don't." Said a young lady to her beau. "Not 'So dont,' but, 'So-zo-dont' you should have said" he replied. The damsel pouted, but took the hint. Nor need it be said, that the balsamic preparation arrested the evil; though it could not quite repair the damage already done.

To the Citizens of North-Carolina.

The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a renewal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends,—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandies, Holland Gin, Liquors, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudical to the interests of the legitimate Importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt te expose these wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transaction with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britian have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liquors, and Liqmures of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical Faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasant, and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and venders of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which with ordinary circumspection will insure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would however, recommend in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot. 22 Beaver Street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandies, &c. in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especialy recommended to all connaisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I would especially call the early attention of my Southern customers, to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to inshure the fulfilment of their favors from the present large and well selected assortment.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

The company has also such favorable contracts with steamer lines from all Northern ports to those of the South, as will enable it to deliver goods at all inland points at rates below the usual charges. The tarriff of charges will be based upon a fair business per centage above the cost of transportation, without being onerous or oppressive; nor will it be made less than the cost of transportation, with the view to break down or drive off any rival, to advance to oppressive and unnecessarily high rates. To the People of the South!

THE OLD

'EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in this enterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitions one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.
